What you did (or missed!)....

Quarter 1 2008 started off at a cracking pace with the Annual Weapon Training Test weekend completed in January. Over 80 cadets from Lima Company (London Area Marine Cadets) took part. All attending Bromley cadets passed.

Recruits Amberger & Enikeev were awarded their Beret in February – well done. Also, we welcome MC2 Knowles (ex blue jacket that has seen the green light. MC1 Emery & MC1 Milner were advanced to Lance Corporal at the Awards Evening in January.

Easter Camp was well attended and this year, it focused upon training, assessments and advancements. Some staff have been told by one or two cadets, that it was cold although everyone that I asked seems not to agree! Well done to Enikeev, Amberger & Campbell who all were advanced to MC2. Congrats also to Knowles who gained a pass at the MC1 board.

Welcome Recruit Slattery: Only just joined and succeeded in gaining Seamanship 3rd class at the Easter Seamanship weekend – Well done.

The website is continuing to get hits (1425 in the last quarter!). www.bromleymarinecadets.co.uk

What you can do ...

The focus for Quarter 2 is two fold; Firstly, all eligible cadets are to be trained for Seamanship 3rd Class with an exam taking place in May 2008. Secondly, all cadets will undertake field training (classroom & field) in order to complete the necessary stages in preparation of the Lima Company training weekends in June & July.

Full bore shooting will be on the training plan so that ALL cadets qualify for FB Shooting badges.

TRAINING OBJECTIVES: Apart from 3rd class seamanship, what specialisations would you want? PT, Mechanical Engineering, Comms, First Aid etc etc.

TRAINING COURSES: Need a list – see SCC web site or see me/unit Training Officer.
